

Declaration of passenger and crew vaccination status for all vessels

To assist with Australia's COVID-19 vaccination requirements for international travel, vessel masters should provide Australian border officials with information about the COVID-19 vaccination status of all passengers and crew on board the vessel. Vessel masters should obtain the information from all passengers and crew on board the vessel and provide it to the Department of Home Affairs (the Department) with the consent of the passengers and crew, as part of the pre-arrival notification process. This form must be completed in English, and be legibly and clearly written.

Temporary visa holders who are fully vaccinated for the purposes of international travel are able to enter Australia.

Australian citizens, permanent residents, and New Zealand citizens usually resident in Australia are able to enter Australia regardless of their vaccination status, however information about their vaccination status may be used to determine the arrangements in place after their arrival (for example, quarantine requirements).

Fully vaccinated for the purpose of international travel to Australia

Travellers to Australia are considered fully vaccinated for the purposes of international travel if they have completed a primary course of a vaccine approved or recognised by the Therapeutic Goods Administration (TGA).

At least 7 days must have passed since the final dose of vaccine in a course of immunisation for a person to be considered fully vaccinated for international travel purposes. Mixed doses count towards being fully vaccinated as long as all vaccines are approved or recognised by the TGA.

Current approved or recognised vaccines and dosages accepted for travel are:

- Two doses at least 14 days apart of:
 - AstraZeneca Vaxzevria
 - AstraZeneca Covishield
 - Pfizer/Biontech Comirnaty
 - Moderna Spikevax or Takeda
 - Sinovac Coronavac
 - Bharat Biotech Covaxin
 - Sinopharm BBIBP-CorV (for people under 60 years of age on arrival in Australia)
 - Gamaleya Research Institute Sputnik V
 - Novavax/Bioelect Nuvaxovid.
- Or one dose of:
 - Johnson & Johnson/ Janssen-Cilag COVID Vaccine.

The following groups can also access the same arrangements as fully vaccinated travellers:

- Children under the age of 12 years and 3 months.
- Children aged 12-17 who are unvaccinated/partially vaccinated and travelling with at least one adult who is fully vaccinated for international travel purposes.
- People who have acceptable proof that they cannot be vaccinated for medical reasons.

Passengers and crew who cannot be vaccinated for medical reasons

Passengers and crew who cannot be vaccinated for medical reasons should show vessel masters acceptable proof of the medical reasons.

The Australian Department of Health website provides information on medical conditions that mean a person cannot be vaccinated. It also includes information on conditions not considered to be a medical reason and not accepted for the purpose of travel to Australia.

NOTE: Previous infection with COVID-19 is not a medical reason that a person is unable to be vaccinated.

For passengers and crew who have a medical reason recorded in the Australian Immunisation Register (AIR), acceptable evidence may include their Australian COVID-19 digital certificate or immunisation history statement.

Passengers and crew who do not have a medical reason recorded in the AIR will need to show a medical certificate that indicates they are unable to be vaccinated with a COVID-19 vaccine because of a medical condition.

The medical certificate must be in English and include the following information:

- the person's name (this must match their travel identification documents)
- date of medical consultation and details of their medical practitioner
- details that clearly outline that they have a medical condition which means they cannot receive a COVID-19 vaccination.

NOTE: The master of the vessel must ensure that this form, including the Privacy Notice and the Consent and Declaration, is made available to every person on board the vessel for them to read.
